Senior Policy Advisor
Senior Manager 1

Alberta Finance and Enterprise, Edmonton - Financial institutions sector policy is not static. Circumstances are always shifting and changing, and policies must be reviewed to ensure they are efficient, effective, and meeting current needs. Periodic evaluation of the overall economic and financial conditions in Alberta and Canada is important to the health of Alberta's financial institutions.

As a Senior Policy Advisor in the Financial Institutions Branch, you will have a significant role in shaping policy regarding financial institutions that operate under the Alberta Treasury Branches Act, Credit Union Act, and Loan and Trust Corporations Act and input into other legislation affecting these institutions.

You will provide advice to decision makers for informed, timely decisions on particular Alberta financial institution policy issues by presenting a range of clearly expressed, logical, and practical options, developed through analytic methods and information to that issue. For each option, you will set out the intended impact in terms of the achievement of desired outcomes, plus mechanisms for implementation, monitoring, and evaluation.

The ability to communicate complex issues in an easily understandable manner is vital to the job, as well as the ability to build strong and effective working relationships, with a broad range of individuals and organizations, internal and external to government. Strong oral and written communication skills are essential.

Qualifications: University degree in commerce, economics or a related discipline along with extensive related experience is required. Accounting designation and experience in financial sector industry or with the public policy process would be considered an asset. Equivalencies will be considered.

NOTE: Final candidates will be asked to undergo a security screening. This competition may be used to fill other positions or future vacancies.
